

Opportunities in Volunteer Training & Stage Manager Position

August 2016 VSA Vermont uses the magic of the arts to engage the capabilities and enhance the confidence of children and adults with disabilities.

---

Volunteer Training Series: Sign up now!

This fall VSA Vermont will host a series of trainings for our volunteers and partners. To register, sign up online at EventBrite. The trainings are made possible in part through support from NobleHour.

For more information, please email or call Heidi Swevens at 802-238-5170.

These trainings are free and open to the public.

Working as a Sighted Guide and/or Verbal Descriptor for People with Blindness or Low Vision

Tuesday, September 13

6:00 - 8:00 PM

Fletcher Free Library - Fletcher Room

Learning About Autism

Wednesday, September 28

6:00 - 8:00 PM

Fletcher Free Library - Fletcher Room

General Disability Etiquette and Awareness

Thursday, October 13

4:00 - 6:00 PM

Fletcher Free Library - Pickering Room

BOOM VT Stage Manager

VSA Vermont is looking for a Stage Manager for BOOM VT - an annual drum festival designed to support the talents of people with disabilities and provide opportunity for people with and without disabilities to engage in musical celebration.

Responsibilities include managing stage and sound functions at BOOM VT on Sunday, October 16, monitoring equipment, attending planning meetings, and coordinating with emcees and VSA VT staff.

For a full job description and more information, call 802-871-5002 or email heidi@vsavt.org

VSA Vermont in the News

Last week our Executive Director, Judy Chalmer, joined Melinda Moulton on her live television show "On The Waterfront." Together they explore how Judy came to VSA, how we work to meet our mission, some successes, and two of our newest programs, VSA VT Mentoring and Arts to Smarts.

Watch it online, or catch it live Tuesday September 6, 2016 at 1:00 pm.