

VSA Vermont

presents Engage a juried exhibition featuring

Vermont artists with disabilities

Engage toured from February, 2012 to May, 2013 at the Amy E. Tarrant Gallery of the Flynn Center for the Performing Arts, Catamount Arts and the Bennington Museum.

Please contact VSA Vermont for more information. Call 802-655-7772 or write info@vsavt.org.

Audio Tours:

Audio tours include label information for all artwork, artist statements, and audio description of 23 of the works presented. Find this audio on our website at: www.vsavt.org/cultural-access/engage/tours wheelchair access sign language interpretation large print

	Braille
	audio description
	access for people with blindness or low vision

VSA Vermont receives support for Engage from Bari and Peter Dreissigacker, Vermont Community Foundation, Wells Fargo Advisors, Neda Nobari Foundation, Vermont Arts Council and National Endowment for the Arts, Valerie and Chuck Maniscalco, Hilary Maslow, Sills Family Foundation, Patricia Fontaine, FairPoint Communications, Burlington City Arts, Artist Mediums, Dan Lovell Photography, Karen Maxon voice actor and Northfield Savings Bank. VSAVT is an affiliate of VSA, a program of The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.